Labor Dispute Causes Shortage Of Ice Cream; Snacks Cut Out

Mr. Elmer N. Hapeman, Cafeteria Department Supervisor, announced that last week's ice cream shortage was due to a labor dispute at the dairy which supplies WHS with ice cream.

He was able to find an alternate dairy to deliver a supply until the usual manufacturer is again able to produce regular products at the standard prices.

Questions have arisen concerning the recent lack of potato chips, candy, and cupcakes. Their sudden disappearance was brought about through a recent visit by the State Director of School Lunch Programs who listed WHS as one of the "best in the state" as far as eating facilities were concerned.

But she was "appalled and amazed by the large variety of candy, crackers, and cupcakes offered to the students."

Action Taken Necessary

Mr. Hapeman said, "I understand the students' feelings when they find no candy, potato chips, or cupcakes. I have enough confidence in Westfield students that they will realize the action taken was necessary to comply with the Directives of the United States Department of Agriculture and the New Jersey Board of Education."

The cafeteria will continue to offer three basic lunches, milk, apples, cookies, and ice cream.

The reduction of the food commodities will limit the students to eating the foods that are high in nutrients, low in calorie, and vital for prolonged, rather than "quick," energy.

Co-operation Of Students Needed

In regard to the foods facing extinction in the cafeterias, Mr. Hapeman said that he "needs the co-operation of all students during this transition period and assures the student body that healthful, well-balanced meals will be offered each day.

Eating incorrectly will only cause problems with complexion, weight, teeth, and hair. This will not only be true of the student's health today, but will effect his health in years to come."

NJEA Films WHS Classes

A three-man television crew sent WHS into chaos May 1-2 when it filmed a show, "Progress '62," sponsored by the New Jersey Education Association.

The film was aired last Saturday on NBC at 1 p.m. Mr. William Hayward, associate radio-TV director for NJEA, acted as coordinator. The WHS English Department was featured in the show.

Among the many scenes televised was Miss Margaret Dietrich's English V class which discussed the contemporary novel, Bread and Wine. Kathy Quad '62, chairman of the discussion commented, "I was very honored at being asked to be the example of literary and general intellectual progress in English V."

Shots were also taken from Miss Dietrich's English IV classes' production of "A Day at the Tabard Inn" by Chaucer. Beryl Gregory '62 displayed and talked about the books used during the three years of high school.

Beryl commented, "I thought I was just going to pose with the books; when Mr. Hayward told me to say a few words, you could have knocked me down with a feather!"

Mr. Hayward remarked, "The reason our unit decided on WHS is because we knew Westfield to have one of the State's better school systems."

Local, State, National Groups Award Seniors Scholarships

Several WHS seniors have recently been named as the recipients of scholarships offered by various national and local organizations.

Leo Kirylenko and Judith Large were awarded scholarships by the College Men's Club of Westfield and the Women's Club of Westfield. Leo receives $600 per year, renewable for four years, for a total of $2400, which he will use toward his education at Rutgers.

Judy, a future student at either Douglass or Wells, receives $200 per year, renewable for four years, for a total of $800.

Also freshmen grants were awarded to Judith Whitlock, who will attend Ohio Wesleyan, and Earlene Mayer, who will study at Lycoming College.

Merit Scholarships

In the National Merit Scholarship Corporation competition, Bill Price received a Merit Scholarship to be used at Princeton University. Joy Schlesinger has won an Honorary Scholarship Merit, which she will use at Radcliffe.

Joy's was an honorary scholarship because her acceptance of other scholarships prevents her from receiving a National Merit Scholarship stipend.

Jean Flanagan is the recipient of the $2800 Westfield College Women's Club scholarship, which she will use at Jackson. Others honored by this group are Beverly Buck, Sue Schlesinger, and Barbara Wolff. Their grants, totaling $1600, will be used at Penn State, Lebanon Valley, and Wellesley, respectively.

Refreshments were served by selected sophomores. While the boys acted as waiters, the girls did the "behind the scenes" work as can be seen in the picture to the left.

Enthusiasm - Work = Nothing

Judging from the lack of response to the Hi's Eye Contributors' Column, it appears that the enthusiasm of those students who were crying so loudly for a political newspaper died quickly. Just ask students to plead for a cause, and you will have hundreds of ready followers. BUT-- ask them to work for a cause, and the general attitude seems to be "Let George do it!"

West Fields Inhabitants Resist State Food Cut

There is a park in the West Fields of New Jersey that commissioners term "one of the best in the state." This is because there is such a good variety of food for the animal inhabitants. There are potato chip leaves, sweet berries, chocolate berries, peppermint, lemon, etc., berries, and many large "wholesome" berries which the commissioners think are extremely good for the animals.

One day, as they were eating lunch, the animals discovered that almost all their favorite foods were poisoned except the "wholesome" berries and a few others. Why, they all wondered? Soon they gathered in distraught groups and decided to send a representative, a bear, to the Park Commissioner to see why he had destroyed their food.

"Well," the commissioner said to the bear, "the state officials said that the foods we destroyed were definitely against all good eating habits and the basic causes for many animals having poor teeth and no prolonged energy. Thus the state commissioner decided to eliminate them; they were sure you would agree with them since you are so mature--like high school students."

"Oh," said the bear, "since we are so 'mature', isn't it likely that we might know enough not to eat these foods exclusively or in large amounts? Is it necessary to treat us so childish?"

All the other animals nodded in agreement, but the Park Commissioner said nothing. He had not ordered the food poisoning: the state had; yet, he did nothing for the animals. There is now a limited food supply in the Park, but it is still one of the best in the state--maybe even better without all the "harmful" food. The animals continue grouping together and crying "What can we do?" But they are only animals, so they can't do much. We are only students, so we can't do much.

Library Closing Student Loss

Last Saturday, May 12, the Westfield Memorial Library closed its doors to the public, and it is probable that they will stay closed Saturdays for the remainder of 1962.

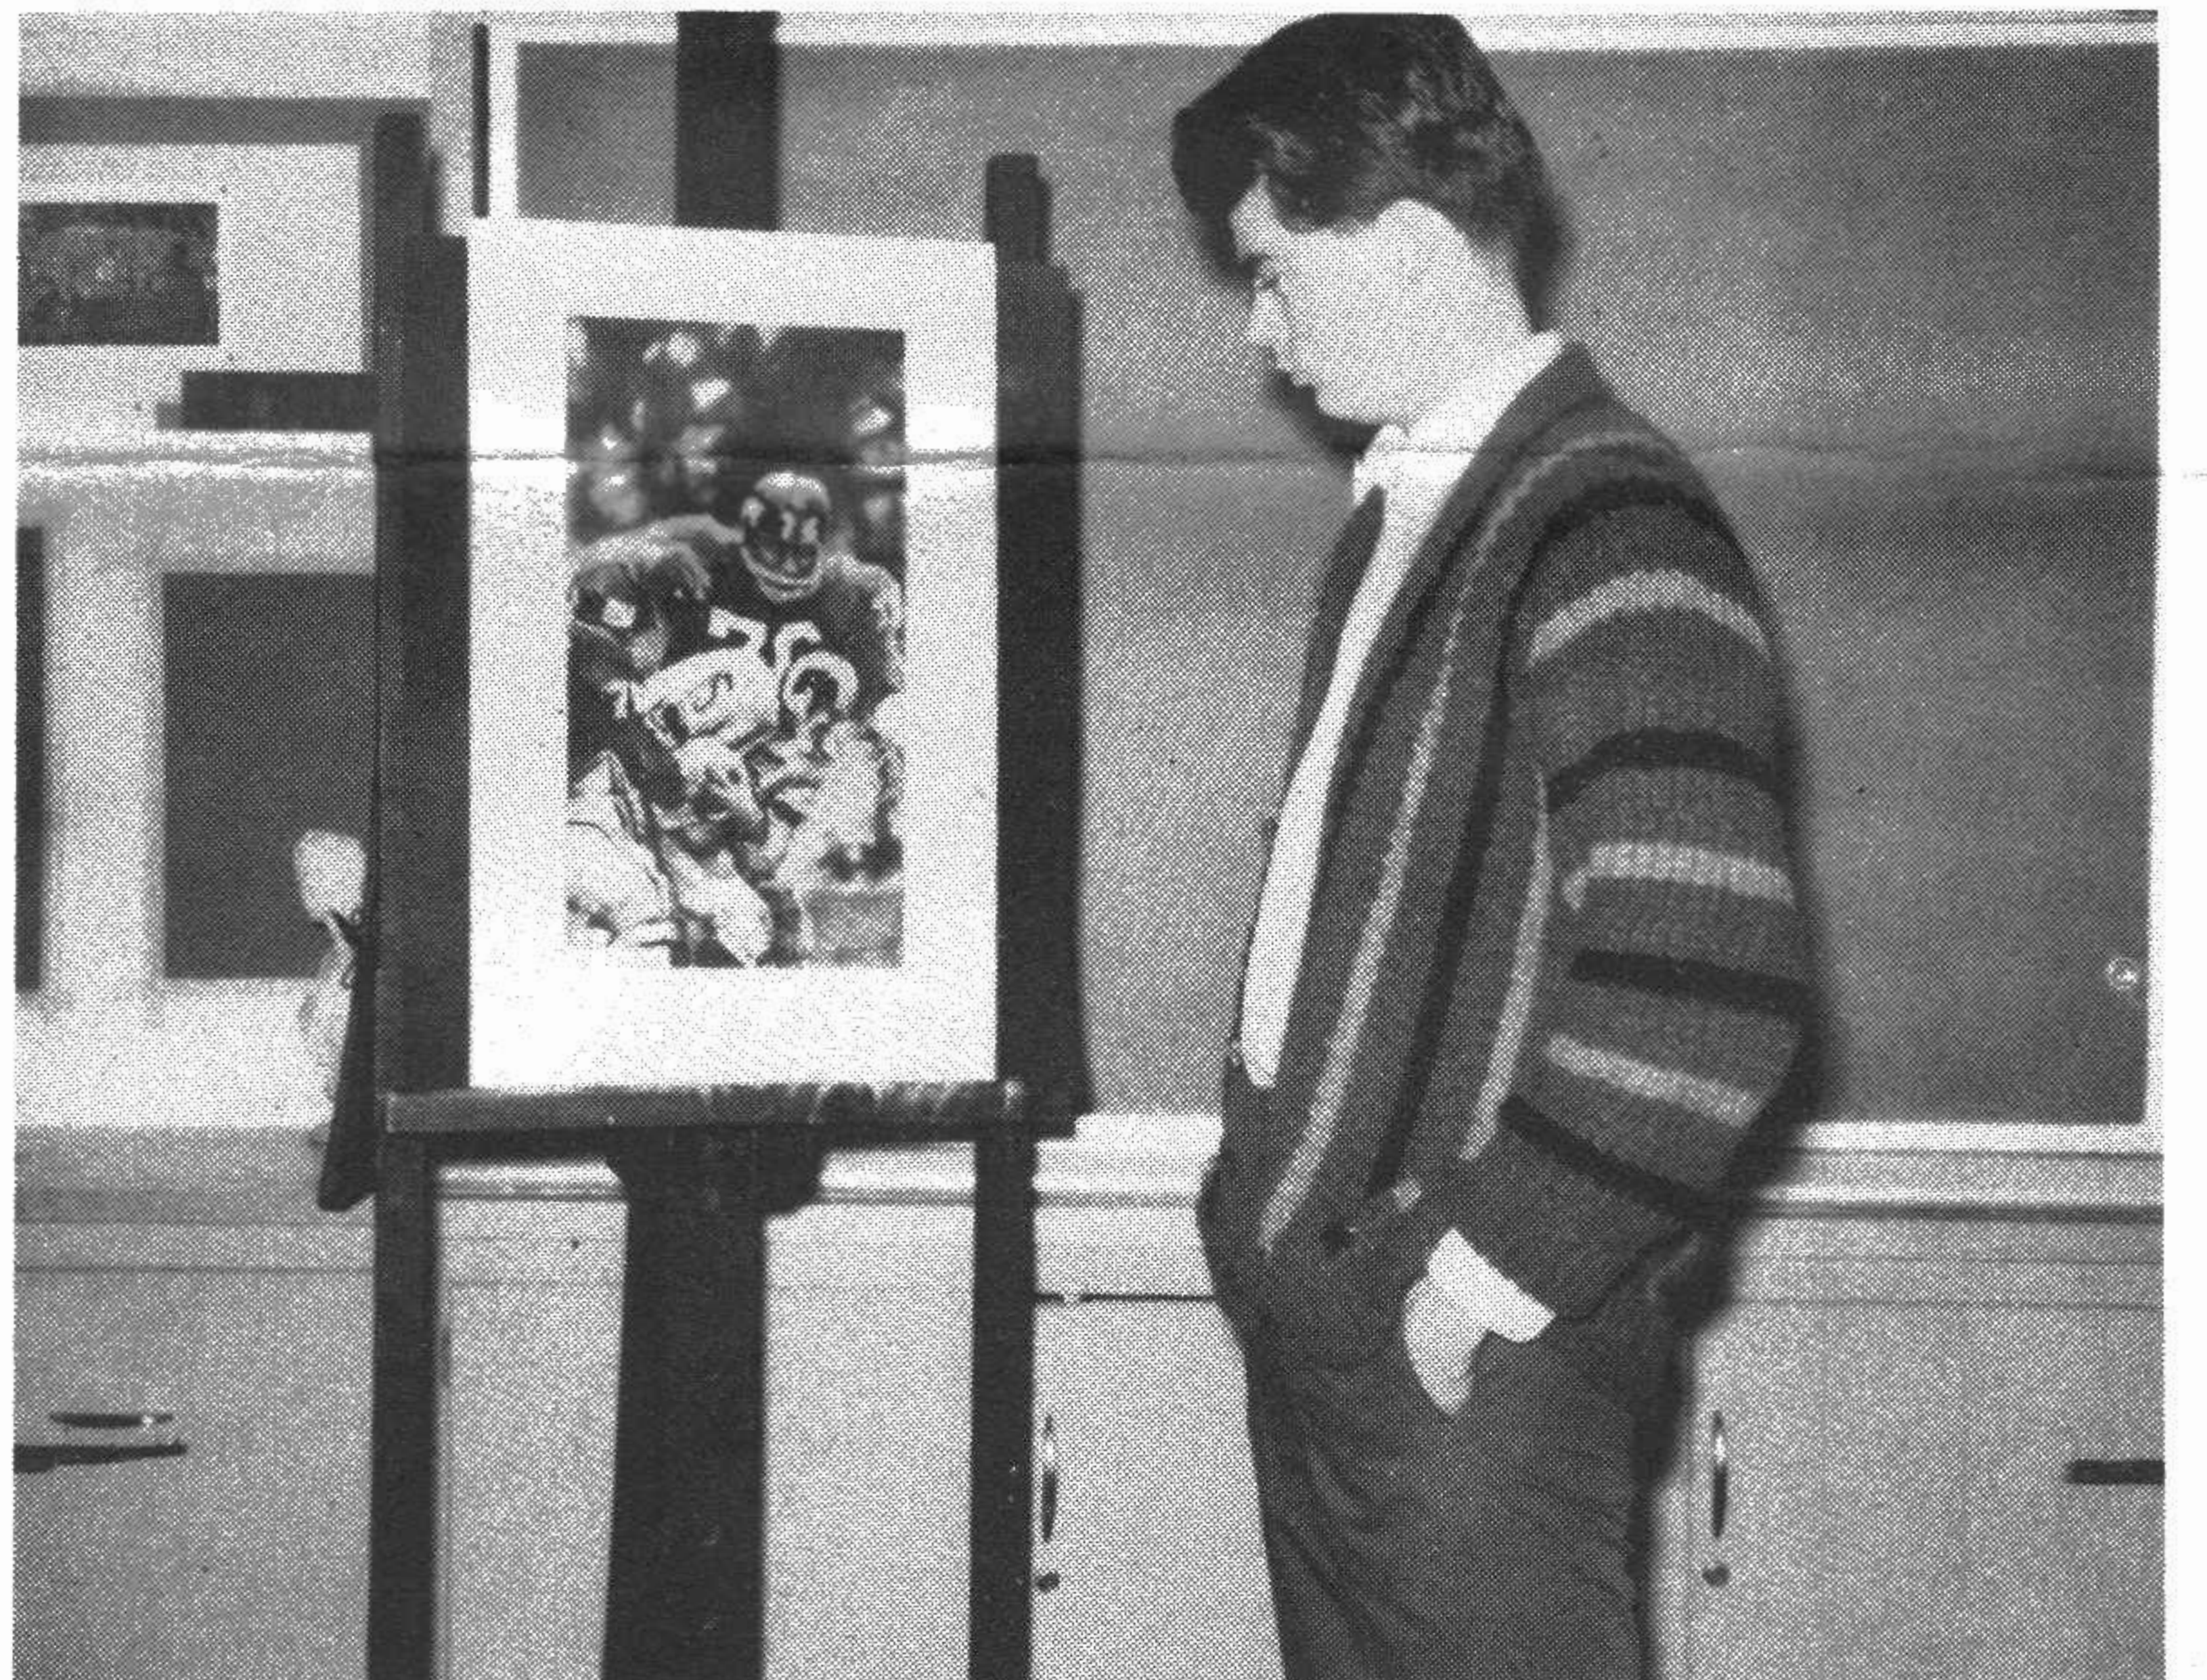

This action is of great concern to WHS students because it means that they will no longer have their largest source of research and reading material on the one day they are free to make full use of the library facilities.

Perhaps this term is coming to a close, but it is well to remember the library closing is effective through next December as of the present.

The Saturday situation is a result of insufficient funds granted to the library by the Town Council which make it impossible to operate on a six day basis, according to Mr. Kenneth Gaston president of the Board of Trustees.

The board asked for a $3000 increase in library monies over the 1961 budget; however, Mayor Burr A. Towl claims that the present funds are sufficient to maintain fulltime operation. Since a library budget has not been made public, it is difficult to determine which position is correct.

Barry Corcoran to Present Art Show at Argus Gallery

"He has a marvelous sense of color and design, and has done work in a variety of styles, ranging from realistic to modern art."

Barry Corcoran, WHS senior, is the boy Mrs. Betty Schenck, art instructor, is referring to in the above statement. Barry will present a one man art show at the Argus Art Gallery, Madison, New Jersey, from Sunday, May 27 to Saturday, June 2.

Having completed many art courses offered at WHS, Barry is presently undertaking a special "almost college level" course designed for him by his instructor. The exhibit is to be his class project for the year, and will be operated in a professional manner. Approximately fourteen works, including portraits, landscapes, figure compositions, and several modern advertising layouts and posters will be displayed.

Mrs. Schenck has expressed hope that many high school students will attend the exhibition.

Coleman, Hoffman, Kovacs Set
Four Records in County Meet

Golfers Extend Winning Streak to 43
With Three More Easy Triumphs

With Dave Coleman and Jim Kovacs establishing new school records respectively in the 880 and the javelin and Bob Hoffman setting new meet shot put and discus marks, Westfield placed fourth in the Union County Meet May 10 at Plainfield.

Coleman left his nearest opponent 50 yards behind while turning in a blazing 1:56 half mile. Kovacs heaved the spear 190-5 3/4. Hoffman spun the disc 161-11 and tossed the shot 54-4 3/4, surpassing the mark set by pro football star Roosevelt Grier in the latter.

Trio Takes 7 Points

Dick Zaparanick, Bill Bryant, and Earl Vigne turned in fine performances to annex third in the mile, fourth in the 100, and fourth in the shot put.

In the Newark Board of Education Meet, Hoffman exceeded the old discus mark.

Devils Win Two

The Blue Devils extended their victory string to four by routing Linden 81-36 and Springfield 84-33 in dual meets.

Hoffman swept away shot put and discus honors against Linden, while the Tigers' Elliot Jefferson tripled with firsts in the 100, 220, and broad jump.

Blue Devil Gil Stith was the lone double victor in the Springfield meet, winning the low hurdles and the broad jump.

Don Tokash Hot Corner Star
For Blue Devil Diamondmen

A third basemen by preference and a shortstop on occasion, co-captain Don Tokash anchors the left side of the Blue Devil infield.

Don batted .290 as the starting third baseman during his junior year. Last summer, he stroked the ball at a .328 clip for the Westfield American Legion nine, which was composed of the best players from Westfield and Springfield.

He was selected for the county all-star team for his part in leading the local Legion squad to the Union County championship.

Queried about the WHS squad's so-so start, Don replied, "I think that we have a very good team. We have had a little bad luck getting started, but will do better as the year progresses."

Next year, he hopes to find time for some ball while majoring in engineering at Penn State.

Laymen Down Scotch Plains 5-0

Bothered by injuries and streaky hitting, Westfield's baseball team remains below the .500 mark. Coach John Lay's crew has a 6-7-1 record.

Captain Dick Myers was benched for a week because of a bruised right hand and outfielder Ed Edmon missed several games because of a neck injury.

Howarth Sparkles

Westfield defeated Scotch Plains 5-0 last Friday on Marty Howarth's two-hitter. Striking out twelve, Howarth scored his first victory of the year after suffering five defeats.

Howarth hurled a no-hitter for five and a third innings before yielding a single in the sixth. When a double, a walk and an error filled the bases with one out in the seventh, Howarth struck out the next two batters to end the game.

The Blue Devils edged Clark 6-5 the day before in an extra-inning clash. Senior Bob Richold posted the victory in relief of starter Jim Smith.

The W.H.S. golf team stretched its winning streak to 43 matches with three wins. Two victories over Hillside and a triumph over Jefferson gave Coach Gary Kehler's linksmen a 5-0 season slate.

The Blue Devils swamped Hillside 16 1/2-1 1/2 on May 7. Mike Ketcham, Kurt Kaufmann, Al Crawford and Mike Pattyson contributed shut-outs to the Westfield cause.

Michaels Stars

Letterman Bob Michaels of Westfield extended his personal winning streak to five matches, shooting a 42 over the front nine to defeat Hillside's Mike Herships 2-1. The match was held at the Echo Lake Country Club.

The WHS linksmen outshot the Hillside combine 18-0 on April 26 for their fourth victory. Ketcham, Kaufmann, Crawford, Pattyson, Michaels and Bill Tittle made the clash a clean Westfield sweep. Galloping Hill Country Club was the site of the rout.

Jeff Routed

Jefferson was the victim of a Blue Devil triumph on April 17. The Kehlermen trampled the Jefferson linksmen 17-1. Every Westfield golfer defeated his opponent. Michaels, Tittle, Kaufmann and Crawford scored shutouts. Galloping Hill C.C. was the cite of the clash.

WHS Netmen
Are Now 6-2

Coach Bjarne Tonnesen's tennis team advanced a 6-2 record last week.

The WHS netmen were handed their first defeat April 27, by Plainfield, 3-2. Blue Devils Dave Richardson and Tom Perry took the first two singles by decisioning Tom Clash 6-4, 6-3 and Richard Kohn 6-2, 6-2 respectively. However, Bob Stuhler was defeated by Roger North 4-6, 6-4, 6-1.

Plainfield then salvaged the doubles matches. Dave Black and Gordon Craig beat WHS' Dan Hanke and Jan Loeber 6-3, 6-2. In a close match Richardson and Perry were decisioned by Clash and North.

The second loss came May 1, with a decisive victory by Pingry, 7-1.

Picking up after their losing streak, the courtmen downed Cranford 5-0, May 4. In singles Richardson beat Dave De Longe 6-0, 6-2 while Hanke downed Bob Olson 6-2, 6-0. Sweeping the singles, Cranford's Jay Farrell was shut out by Perry 6-0, 6-0.

In doubles the duos of Stuhler and Loeber and Bruce Sargent and Steve Booth defeated De Longe and Olson 7-5, 6-0 and Mike Bedell and Jim Oathout 6-1, 6-2 respectively.

May 9 brought another victory when Roselle was defeated for the second time, 5-0.

Last Friday, the netmen defeated the Perth Amboy courtmen 5-0. In singles Richardson decisioned Bob Kant 6-1, 6-1, Perry downed Tom Boyes 6-0, 6-3, and Hanke beat Richard Sachs 7-5, 6-3.

Yet, after frequenting the library, it appears that there is a definite need for all the librarians and library assistants employed; moreover, presently people must often wait for librarian assistance in locating certain literature, and as Mr. Gaston pointed out, have to stand in line to check out books. The Board would like to hire additional staff members to alleviate the situation.

Since the Trustees will not operate the Library Saturdays without additional funds, it is essential that this money be supplied. If Westfield can afford to build new baseball diamonds and tennis courts, it can afford to keep its public library open Saturdays.

Personality Sketch

Cooper Wright, Future Cadet, Wins Church, Scout Awards

"You want to interview me for the Hi's Eye personality sketch? You must be joking! What did I do?" was Cooper Wright's comment when he was approached for an interview.

Besides having been one of two students from Westfield accepted at West Point, Cooper also won his God and Country Award through the Methodist Church, came in second in the nation for the Alcoa Foundation Scholarship, became an Eagle Scout in eighth grade, and plays the banjo in his spare time.

Concerning his acceptance at West Point, Cooper remarked, "I've always wanted to go to West Point, ever since I can remember. It was always an impressive goal to tell everyone about. Then when it happened," he added, "Man was I surprised!"

900 Out Of 2,512 Chosen

Out of 2,512 nominees for the freshman class at West Point, Cooper was among the 900 who were accepted. He was a representative selected by Senator Clifford Case.

When asked why he wanted to attend West Point rather than Lehigh where he was also accepted, Cooper replied, "In later life, I plan to become involved with the space program and since the government has a monopoly on this program, the best way to get into it is to join the monopoly. West Point is a nice place to start."

AFS Picks Linda Mathis To Be Exchange Student

The American Field Service has selected Linda Mathis '63 to go to Oslo, Norway, next year as an exchange student from WHS. When asked how she felt about the news, Linda replied, "I'm still having trouble believing I'm actually going!"

The junior girl will stay with Mr. and Mrs. Unner Kjolstad and their daughter Tove, 17. "My Norwegian family lived in Washington, D.C. for several years and they all speak English," Linda stated. However, she will attend an AFS camp for two weeks in order to learn some Norwegian before joining her family.

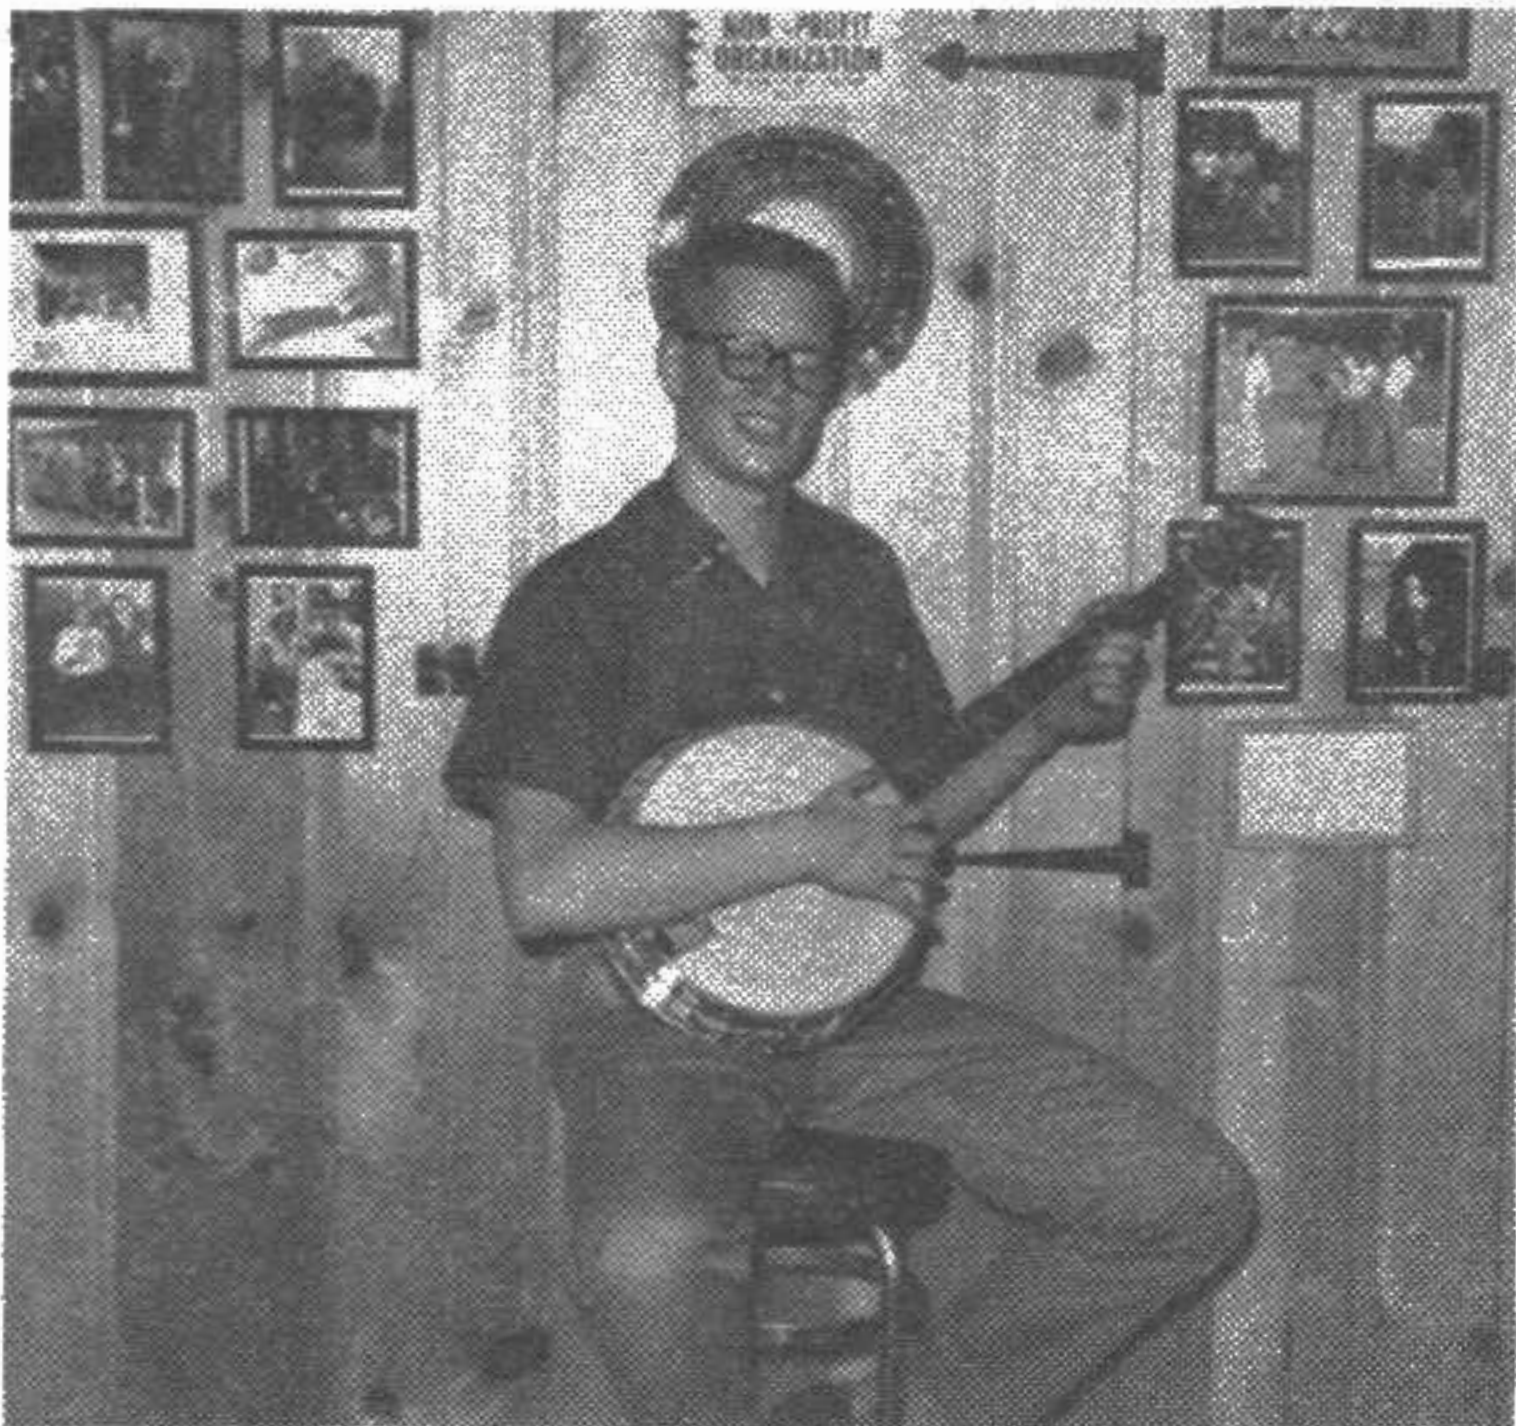

"In Norway the teachers move from class to class, not the students," Linda said. She went on to explain that the school she will attend is co-educational and lasts six days a week. "I'll still have a twenty minute lunch period, though," she added.

Linda will have to take her exams early since she will be sailing from Montreal June 15. She plans to remain in Norway throughout the first semester of her senior year.

of English.

For the fifth year, the Council is conducting the Awards program throughout the nation to grant recognition to outstanding high school seniors for excellence in English.

The writing abilities and literary awareness of each nominee will be judged by local and state committees. NCTE will announce the winners in December.

Earns God And County Awards

In a year's time Cooper has also become quite involved in the Methodist Church. Besides receiving his God and Country Award this year, which he has been working on since his freshman year in high school, he is also on the MYF Council, and was the presiding minister of Youth Sunday. "The thing that inspired me to work on the Award, was that I'm always hanging around down at church anyway, so why not do something constructive."

He added that the Methodist minister of Education has been trying to push him into the ministry; but he went on "I'm great when it comes to receiving spiritual guidance, but when it comes to giving it, count me out."

Plays The Banjo

In his "spare time," Cooper amuses himself playing the banjo. "I became interested in the banjo at camp last summer, so I bought one from one of my friends in school," he said. Cooper taught himself a few cords and now enjoys accompanying himself with some of his favorite Kingston Trio numbers.

"I only lock myself up in my room and do this," he added, "so don't let this get out that I play. Let's keep my hidden talents hidden."
